be determined by a General Meeting. Upon admission and election to Subscriber following the expiry of the fixed membership term the Term Member changing status shall pay a further entrance fee.

- (c) The Committee shall have power in its absolute discretion to waive, accept installments or to reduce the amount of the entrance fee payable by a candidate who has been elected to membership.

SUBSCRIPTIONS

- ✧ 31. The subscription for a Member shall be such amount payable monthly as may from time to time be determined by a General Meeting.
- ✧▲ 32. All Members who are over the age of seventy (70) years and who have paid subscriptions cumulatively for a period equivalent to at least thirty (30) years shall be eligible to apply for waiver of subscription. Whether or not the subscription waiver application is approved, all other rights of the Member shall remain the same.

DEBENTURE

- ✧ 33. (a) All persons elected as Ordinary Members or Subscribers before 1st January 1981 shall purchase one (1) debenture each with a nominal value of HK$1,000. The debentures written notice to the Secretary/Manager of his intention to be absent, then during such period of absence:-

- (i) he shall be exempted from paying any monthly subscription;
 - (ii) he may use the Club on brief visits of less than fifteen (15) days without payment of the monthly subscription; and
 - (iii) he may use the Club on visits of more than fourteen (14) days with payment of a minimum of one month's subscription.
- (c) Returning Life Absent Members shall on the first visit to the Club during such period of absence be required to provide an acceptable signed blank credit card payment voucher or other securities or guarantees as approved by the Committee from time to time to cover all the amounts which may be due from him to the Club for the duration of his stay in Hong Kong.
- ✧ (d) Upon his return to Hong Kong such Member shall within seven (7) days thereafter notify the Secretary/Manager in writing of his return and irrespective of whether such notice is given his liability to pay monthly subscriptions shall resume as from the date of his return to Hong Kong.

DEFAULTERS

35. Accounts of the Members shall be made up at the end of each month and promptly despatched to members. Should any accounts remain unpaid on the last day of the month in which they were despatched the Member shall receive written notice drawing his attention to that fact and notifying him that unless the account is paid within seven (7) days from the date of the notice his name shall be posted on the notice board of the Club. If the Member fails to comply with the said notice within the period specified and the account remains unpaid the name of that Member may at the discretion of the Committee be posted on the notice board of the Club as a Defaulter and if at the expiration of ten (10) days from the date upon which his name is so posted his account still remains unpaid he shall ipso facto cease to be a Member. The Committee may in its sole and absolute discretion reinstate any person who has ceased to be a Member under the foregoing provision of this Article on such conditions as the Committee may impose.
36. The Committee may require a Member, if he has been posted more than once under the provisions of the foregoing Article or for any other reason the Committee considers fit, to furnish a permanent deposit of such amount as it may require.
- ✧ 37. The Committee may limit the amount of credit which a Member may be granted in any one (1) month and may require him to pay that amount before he can obtain further credit.

- ✧ 38. The Committee may require the holder of a Corporate Nominee Membership to withdraw its Nominee if he has been posted under the provisions of Article 35 or for any other reason the Committee in its sole and absolute discretion thinks fit.

GENERAL PROVISIONS WITH REGARD TO MEMBERSHIP

- 39. Any Member may resign his membership by giving notice in writing to the Secretary/Manager at any time previous to the commencement of a month otherwise he will be held liable for that month's subscription.
- 40. The rights and privileges of the Member shall be personal to himself and such rights and privileges shall not be transferable by his own act or by operation of law, and shall cease upon his death, or upon his ceasing from any cause to be a Member under the provisions of these Articles provided that this Article shall not apply to the holder of a Corporate Nominee Membership.
- 41. Any person who shall for any reason whatsoever cease to be a Member shall nevertheless remain liable for and shall pay to the Club all monies which at the time of his ceasing to be a Member shall be due from him to the Club.
- ✧▲ 42. No Member shall be entitled to use the facilities of the Club or vote on any question while he is posted under these Articles or By-Laws of the Club for the time being in force.

- ✕▲ 45. If the Committee is of the opinion that the Member has been guilty of the complaint made against him/her and that he/she has failed to explain or justify it satisfactorily, the Committee may call upon a Member to resign and if he/she does not resign within seven (7) days the Committee shall expel him/her and he/she shall cease to be a Member. A Member expelled under this Article shall have the right to appeal by giving written notice of appeal, supported in writing by at least twenty (20) Members of the Club, to the Secretary within fourteen (14) days of the date of expulsion. Thereupon a General Meeting shall be convened for the purpose of considering and, if thought fit, passing an ordinary resolution rescinding the expulsion and if such meeting shall pass such resolution then the Member shall be reinstated from the date of such resolution.
- ✕★▲46. At all such specially convened meetings of the Committee and any General Meeting held under Article 44 and 45 both the Club and the Member whose conduct is complained of may be legally represented or advised and may adduce such evidence as may be relevant.
- ✕★ 47. If the Committee, after conducting an inquiry under Article 44, is of the opinion that the Member was guilty of the complaint made against him/her and that he/she has failed to explain or justify it satisfactorily to the Committee, instead of calling upon a Member to resign, the Committee may at its sole discretion

- ⊛▲ 48. Subject to the express provisions of these Articles and to any By-Laws made by the Committee as hereinafter provided for the time being in force all members shall be entitled at all times to use in common all the premises and property of the Club and to be supplied at such charges as the Committee shall determine with such meals, refreshments, liquors and things as are provided by the Club for the use of Members.

- ▲ 49. Members shall alone be permitted to compete for any cups or prizes presented by the Club or by private persons unless the Committee, or such donors, name conditions to the contrary. In all competitions as well as in ordinary course of play the customs pertaining to the established etiquette of games, athletic sports and pastimes authorised by these Articles shall be observed by players.

✂ PATRON

- ✂ 50. The Committee shall have power to invite a person of distinction to be the Patron of the Club. The Patron may but need not be a Member of the Club and in either case shall not whilst acting as Patron have any of the liabilities of a Member. The Patron shall have the right to receive notice of and to attend but not to vote at meetings of the Members of the Club and otherwise shall have such rights and privileges as shall be determined by the Committee provided that the Patron shall have no executive power or function. The Patron may be removed by the Committee as it thinks fit.

✧ PRESIDENT

- ✧ 51. The Committee shall have power to invite a person of distinction to be the President of the Club. be considered, provided however that the absence of notice of any special business shall not preclude the discussion at an Annual General Meeting of any matter relating to the constitution and management of the Club.

87. At all General Meetings the President of the Club shall be entitled to take the Chair if present or if he be absent or if at any General Meeting he shall not be present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or if he shall have previously notified the Secretary/Manager of his intention of not being present, the Chairman shall take the Chair instead, and if the Chairman is also absent from such meeting, the members of the Committee shall choose one of their number as chairman of the meeting, and if no member of the Committee be present, or if all the members of the Committee present decline to take the Chair, then the Ordinary Members present shall select one amongst their number to be chairman of the meeting.
87. At all General Meetings except those convened pursuant to Article 89, ten (10) Ordinary Members present in person or by proxy shall constitute a quorum.
88. The Committee may also convene other General Meetings of the Club specifying in the notice convening the meeting the object or objects for which the Meeting is called and to which the discussion must be strictly confined.

90. An Annual General Meeting and any other General Meetings shall be called by twenty-one (21) days' notice in writing at the least, unless otherwise required by the Companies Ordinance. The notice shall be given, by circular, posted or addressed, or through the medium of one of the local papers, or in manner hereinafter mentioned or in such other manner, if any, as may be prescribed by the Club in General Meeting, to such persons as are, under these Articles entitled to receive such notices from the Club. The circular or advertisement with a statement of the object of the meeting shall also be exhibited in a conspicuous place in the club house for the same period. Accidental omission to give such notice to any of the Patron, the President, Life Members, Honorary Life Members, Ordinary Members, Subscribers, Corporate Nominees, Sporting Members, Junior Sporting Members or Term Members shall not invalidate any resolution passed at such meeting.
91. If within half an hour from the time appointed for any General Meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened pursuant to Article 89 shall be dissolved. In any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present, the business may be transacted with such number of Ordinary Members as may be present.
92. At any meeting (unless a poll is demanded by not less than five (5) Members then present in person or by proxy and having the right to vote
